

April 9, 69

Dear Bill:

Thank you for sending me your ideas on the Round Table for Freedom and the paper on your thoughts following the conference at Claremont College. You have put your finger on a number of the current challenges to real freedom in our country.

I am pleased that you sent a copy of your letter to Henry Kissinger for I would like you to keep in touch with him on your ideas for the Round Table.

Our discussion a few weeks ago was a source of great pleasure to me. I hope my schedule will allow me similar occasions for stimulating conversation with you in the future.

Sincerely,

W. Y. Elliott

Professor William Y. Elliott
School of International Service
The American University
Massachusetts and Nebraska Avenues, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20016

RN:HAK:RGH:lds:4-12-69